

DEVON HISTORY SOCIETY CONFERENCE

The Reformation in Devon

The first in a series of three annual one-day conferences on religion in Devon will be held at

The Boniface Centre, Church Lane, Crediton, Devon, EX17 2AH.
Saturday 12th May 2012, 10am–4pm. Coffee and registration 10am -10.30am

Professor Alexandra Walsham: Professor of Modern History, University of Cambridge: ‘The Reformation and the English People Re-visited’

Canon Professor Nicholas Orme: ‘From the Middle Ages to the Reformation’

Dr Elizabeth Tingle: University of Plymouth: ‘God’s Chosen People: Protestant Reformations in Brittany and Devon Compared’

Mr John Allan: Exeter Archaeology: ‘The Archaeology of the Reformation in Devon’

Conference convenors: Dr Todd Gray and Mrs Jane Bliss.

The conference fee includes morning and afternoon refreshments and a substantial buffet lunch. Total cost is £20 DHS members and £24 for non-members.

Please complete booking form with a cheque to Devon History Society & return to Mrs Jane Bliss, Honorary Programme Secretary, The Devon History Society, Wavecrest, Sunnyside Road, Woolacombe , Devon, EX34 7DG, by 20 April 2012.

Tel: 01271 870723 Email: jbhistory@hotmail.co.uk

Title Name(s)

Address

Telephone:..... Email:.....

Please book places @ £20 (members) places @ £24 (non members)